

Compact Conflict Solutions

Conflicts cost time, money and energy.

systemics●lean™Mediation is the art of finding solutions together at minimal expenditure of time, money and energy, while keeping everyone's interest at heart.

systemics●lean™Mediation

- is focused Mediation and
- is the format that is specially geared to solving conflicts in the corporate world.

- Clarifies the number of meetings and the total costs from the very start,
- checks the willingness of the conflictual parties involved,
- integrates the core issues with those parties' interests,
- offers sufficient space for individual perspectives without losing sight of the common goal and the common future, which are at stake,
- results in the involved parties' enormous satisfaction with a venue which they themselves have chosen, which is very different from the judicial or other heteronomous possibilities.
